

Information Literacy

Grade 5

Standard 1: The student develops proficiency in using information organized in libraries and other information systems.

1.1 uses online catalog to find call numbers of library material

1.2 locates material in library using call numbers

Standard 2: The student locates and uses information independently.

2.1 searches online catalog for materials using author, title, series and subject searches

2.2 locates resources in different categories and formats

2.3 begins to use periodical indexes to identify articles

2.4 locates articles in periodicals

2.5 uses machines to access and reproduce information, e.g., microcomputers, photocopiers, VCRs, etc.

2.6 utilizes features of books, e.g., table of contents, index, guide words, bibliographies, glossaries, graphics, documents, etc.

Standard 3: The student understands the purpose and uses of basic information sources.

3.1 uses basic and specialized reference tools

Standard 4: The student selects and evaluates information resources.

4.1 selects appropriate formats, tools(s) and resources to address a task or problem

4.2 evaluates the accuracy, relevance, appropriateness, comprehensiveness and bias of information resources

Standard 5: The student uses information and information technologies responsibly and ethically.

5.1 credits work of others using the CAC report format

Standard 6: The student interacts with books and other media.

6.1 chooses appropriate reading, viewing, listening materials for information and enjoyment