

World languages Philosophy

The World Languages program at Cairo American College is based on the following beliefs:

- Equipping students with knowledge, attitudes, thinking dispositions, and learning skills adaptable in the worlds of the future.

- Encourage the students to be life long learners of foreign languages

Purpose of World Language Study:

To communicate in different languages, gain knowledge and understanding of other cultures.

Dimensions of Understanding: Guiding Questions:

- How do we empower students to listen, speak, read and write in the target language?

- How do we sensitize students to gain knowledge & understanding of different cultures?

Methods:

- Experiencing real life situations in the target language through listening, speaking, reading and writing

- Exploring and comparing different cultures

Forms:

- Flash cards

- Technology

- Picture books

- Maps

- Games

- Activity book

- Textbooks

- Simulation

- Cassette recording

- Projects etc...