Week Without Walls

During the week of March 16 - 23, all 489 high school students along with 56 faculty members will be participating in either the Model United Nations trip to Beijing or the Honor Band Choir trip to Luxembourg or one of twenty-seven Week Without Walls (WWW) trips. These trips are an integral part of the high school curriculum; providing students with diverse educational experiences as well as offering them the opportunity to build stronger links between the classroom and the different cultures of the world.

This week, students were given copies of the Week Without Walls booklet, which details the individual trips, costs and student responsibilities. Parents are asked to read about the different trips and discuss the various options with their sons and daughters. If your child forgot to bring the WWW booklet home, it can be accessed on line at <http://www.cacegypt.org/www06>.

Week Without Walls Parent Night

On Tuesday, November 7, there will be a Week Without Walls Parent Night in the Theater. At this meeting, parents will be briefed on the WWW program, the sign-up process, as well as the roles and responsibilities of students, teachers and parents. Parents will also be provided with important information about the trips and have an opportunity to meet and ask questions of the individual trip chaperones. Please put this important date on your calendar and plan on attending.

Halloween Carnival

The Halloween Carnival was a huge success and a family night full of fun for the entire CAC community. This event could not take place without your support and there are some very special people to thank. Special thanks to Mark Sullivan, Junior Sponsors: Dr. Farouk and Ms Gellerson, and Ms. Mazhar for their extra time and efforts. Thanks also to the Administration and support staff of all three divisions, the security and janitorial staff, and the faculty sponsors of the individual clubs and organizations who participated. It was especially nice to have this be a true all-school event with all three divisions pitching in to help!

Thanks to all who attended and donated candy, and extra-special thanks to the following families who volunteered their time and efforts: the Bensons, the Merahs, the Balls, the Bloomfields, the Tietjens, the Fergusons, the Hamdys, the Etcheverrys, the McIntoshes, the Matkowskis, the Byttners, the John Millers, the Woods, the Mowrys, the Nelsons, the Drivers, the Ushers, the O'Kanes, the Phinneys, and the Jeffs. These families decorated, hauled tables, set-up games, sold tickets, made candy runs, supervised at the event, and did all this with smiles on their faces! Thanks to all of you!

Thanks to all the students who volunteered with both set-up and with running the games. We had students from all three divisions helping all day and we could not have done it without you! Thank you especially to those students who volunteered at the games and events that night. The way you interacted with the younger students was something to see, we are so proud of the example you set, and we truly appreciate all your efforts.

Last but certainly not least, extra-special thanks to Kris Wood for co-chairing the carnival and working long hours behind the scenes for several weeks as well as her tireless efforts on the day of the event. It was a blast and we can't wait for next year!

Thespian Production: 'A Midsummer Night's Rockin' Eve' (November 14, 15, 16)

The Thespian production this year is a modern adaptation of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream', and sees a cast of 35 high school students dance, sing and act their way through a fast paced comical script, that includes many familiar hits from 'The Beatles'. Directed by Stacey Goldie, choreographed by Allyson Condrath and with a band directed by Will Coppoc, this show is a must see.

The play is set in South River High School in the present day, and Dr. Desmond-Forest Oates, fine arts chair, is trying to cast 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' for their school production. In real life love is in the air for Allison and Berke, or is it love for Berke and Kelly, and who is this new guy, Striker? Will he get the main part in the play? Will he get the girl? And will real life start to merge with the plot of the play as it unfolds? Come and find out.

Performances are:

Tuesday, November 14 (Preview) at 7 p.m. in the theater

Wednesday, November 15 at 7 p.m. in the theater

Thursday, November 16 at 7 p.m. in the theater

Tickets are 20LE at the box office (or at the front gate from 3.00-3.30pm)

PTO Notes

PTO Multicultural Committee Field Trip - Please mark your calendars now for an opportunity to visit Mohamed Ali's Palace on Thursday, November 9. Transportation by bus to and from the school will depart at 8:30 and return by 2:30. Lunch, at your own expense, will be at the Happy Land Restaurant over the Nile. Tour guide's fee shared by all who attend. To reserve a place or for more information, please contact Soumaia at Soumaiashafik@yahoo.com. Deadline for reservations is noon, November 5.

Phone Directories. By now, every family should have received a copy of this year's CAC Phone Directory. We have done our best to publish all information correctly. If you do find an error in your listing, please email pto@cacegypt.org. Thanks to the Admissions office and the Information Technology group for their help in publishing this book, Kimberly Odekirk for the beautiful art work, and the PTO Phone Directory Committee: Aida Jebeyli, Yunita Mowry, Dawn Ravesies, Jo Everitt, Erika Harms, Nancy Hughes, Howayda Fayyad, Eva Addison, Riana Van Tonder, Jacqueline Seneshen, Shirley Kendrick, Karen Bloomfield, Heidi Thurmon, and Amy Moritz. If you would like to have more than one copy of the directory, additional copies may be purchased in the PTO Room (Room 18, above the ID Office, the former Lost and Found), on the honor system, for 20 LE. Please place your money in the cash box next to the directories if you take one!

Staff Appreciation is around the corner, and we would really appreciate if parents would send a dish with their child to bring to school on November 8 and to drop off at the Elementary Lunch Room as they come in the morning. Thank you so much; your contribution is greatly appreciated.
